

Financial & Guardianship Planning & Educational Advocacy for Your Special Needs Child

*Join us for a special mini-seminar about
Financial Planning, POA/Guardianship & Educational Advocacy*

Sunday April 28, 2024 from 2:00pm-4:00pm

Grand Point Church • 2230 Grand Point Rd • Chambersburg, PA

Kathleen Haigh, Special Education Advocate

Kathleen is a dedicated special education advocate, who embarked on her entrepreneurial journey in March of 2022, establishing her own special education advocacy business. Kathleen has been a professional advocate for the past eight years and prior to her own professional endeavor, Kathleen served as a Family Resource Specialist at the PEAL Center in Central Pennsylvania from 2016 to 2022. Covering 22 counties in the region, she provided support to families raising children with disabilities across the state. As a mother of twins – a neurotypical daughter and a son diagnosed with autism at an early age – Kathleen's personal journey fueled her advocacy efforts. She will be sharing her knowledge and wisdom of how to successfully advocate for your child as a student.

On this day, Kathleen will also be offering seven FREE 20-minute time slots for parents to meet with her privately between 2:40pm and 5pm. These sessions are geared towards helping you to gain insight about your student's educational records, answer questions, and strategize solutions about their education. You will need to register for these very limited time slots and you will also need to get two very specific documents to Kathleen ahead of time—a current IEP and the last evaluation done by the school district. If you are interested in registering for one of these 20-minute time slots please email Emily at the following address: Emilyh4321@gmail.com

Brian Young, CFP® and ChSNC®, with Comprehensive Financial Planning Group, LLC., & Megan Ingram, Esquire, with Steinbacher, Goodall & Yurchak Law Firm

Brian draws from having 25+ years of experience in the financial services industry and having a son who has autism. Megan joined Steinbacher, Goodall & Yurchak as an associate attorney in November 2020. A 2020 summa cum laude graduate of Penn State Law School, Megan works out of the firm's State College office and primarily works in the wealth protection department, she also has a son with special needs. They will be discussing how to plan for your special needs child's financial future and will also cover guardianship and POA information in their presentation.
