This year we are excited to be able to offer two additional sites for the luncheon:

Church of the Good Shepherd
1500 Quentin Rd
Lebanon, PA

The Lebanon and Harrisburg locations will also be holding a luncheon and sharing the music and speaker via simulcast from Chambersburg.

Grand Point Church, 2230 Grand Point Rd., Chambersburg, PA will be the host site and offer the luncheon just as it has previously.

As a mother of a child with autism, you are invited to join us for a time of rest, relaxation, renewal and celebration. You won't want to miss this event, offered at no charge. You will enjoy a catered lunch, a great speaker, gifts, the opportunity to network with other mothers and local resource providers, along with a few other surprises! Free, limited childcare will be available.

From 8:00 a.m. until 10:15 a.m., mothers will have the opportunity to view and enter to win door prizes. Also during this time, mothers are invited to visit the Resource Room for the opportunity to learn about local autism service providers.

The guest speaker will be Kate Swenson. Kate Swenson is the creator of Finding Cooper's Voice, an online and in-person community, where families of children with disabilities can come together to celebrate, laugh, cry, learn and get support. With over a million followers her goal is to normalize the stigmas surrounding having a member of the family with a disability and what she refers to as a 'secret world'. Her book, Forever Boy, A Mother's Memoir of Autism and Finding Joy was published in 2022 and quickly became a national bestseller. Her next book, Autism Out Loud, will be released in April 2025. Kate, her husband, and four kids, live in Minnesota.
